春分 The Spring equinox

March 21st, 2023

We welcome you to the new edition of our public newsletter! Following the refreshing energy of springtime, it has been transformed for your easier read.

Today, we embrace the rising energy in its most balanced form - the Chun Fun 春分, which means complete equilibrium of yin and yang and alignment of the east and west.

As we embark into spring in the Northern Hemisphere, the energy around us is very active and gaining power. This is the time for starting new projects, getting things done, moving on with activity, vitality, full of focus and determination.

This issue presents many fascinating articles, shared by our members, teachers, senior masters and Grand Master Chan Kun Wah. We thank to all our readers, writers, and Grand Master Chan who make this newsletter better and better with each edition!

Our aim is to show the uniqueness, authenticity, and the power of Chue Style Feng Shui, through success stories, case studies and teachings shared in the following articles. Hope you enjoy them and remember to share them with your friends!

WHAT IS FENG SHUI?

Composed by Susanna Senior Master Lau (GD: FS/YHH/DS/IC/ICD)

Psychologist in Feng Shui field

A lot of clients treat a Feng Shui consultant as a psychologist. Some clients only want to hear good things about their life and their property during consultation. Many feng shui consultants will sell clients some feng shui gadgets which they claim could improve health and wealth. This is a marketing gimmick. The gadgets are overpriced, and the expected benefit is questionable. If it is that easy to improve health and wealth by placing feng shui gadgets, the global poverty issue and the incurable diseases should have been easily resolved.

Many clients, especially those in Southeast Asia, will seek feng shui consultations every year. There are many misunderstandings of feng shui energy changes every year. It is not necessary to do annual consultation on the property, unless you insist to provide recurrent income to your feng shui master!

Clients using Chue Style Feng Shui will not need a property consultation frequently. A consultation will be needed if there are some major changes to the property, for instance, change of doors, cooking area, extension of space, etc.

Feng Shui is a science

Feng Shui is about astronomy, geology and environmental study. We look up the sky and analyse the stars, the moon and the sun to understand energy. The big dipper points to seasonal directions. The brightest star suggests auspicious events to be happened in certain directions or countries. The form and direction of the moon indicate the day of the month. When a person is born, the location of both the sun and the moon already tells us so much about the energy of the person.

The genuine feng shui master needs to understand the natural energy, and know how to grab good and avoid bad chi. Nature is very powerful and can benefit human if you know how to align the energy.

To identify auspicious location to build a property or to bury ancestor, for instance, feng shui master will look out from the top of the mountain. The knowledge of how the mountain dragon moves and where it stays to take a rest are valuable pieces of information to determine the energy of the earth. The water must be holding well in the auspicious direction to benefit human.

Understanding the behaviour of all living things are crucial for feng shui master. Feng shui is the study of environment. Animals, insects and many other living things are more sensitive than humans to natural disasters. A good feng shui master should have the ability to avoid areas with risk of natural disasters, such as earthquake, landslide, adverse weather, flooding, etc.

Genuine feng shui

Recently, I came across one of the so-called feng shui masters in Hong Kong. She claimed that 'Yuen Hom flying star' 玄空飛星 method is the only way to measure Feng Shui. Her statement, which I believe is commonly subscribed to in the field, shows her ignorance and inferior skills.

The name 'Yuen Hom flying star' is incorrect. Yuen Hom is referred to the 64 hexagrams 玄空大卦, and it has nothing to do with the nine flying stars. The way they fly the stars is also incorrect, meaning there is no yin and yang movements. The genuine 'Chee Ba flying star' 紫白飛星 is used primarily for prediction which could also give reference to interior energy of a property.

A lot of people think feng shui is superstitious because they could not be able to identify/quantify the effect of feng shui consultation. If the feng shui skill is not genuine, how can one be able to see the effect.

The Chue Style Feng Shui knowledge is passed to us from generation to generation, and is further expanded by our Great Grand Master Chan with his devoted research work over the past 60 years. He always told his clients beforehand how their life will benefit after the implementation of his feng shui advice. He has never let his clients down.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE FORM

Composed by Master Céline Speranza (CP)

Feng Shui demonstrates the impact of form and geomagnetic orientations and sectors on living things. Therefore, the slightest change in the shape of a house will influence the life of the inhabitants.

The cause and effect can be observed, for example, on a family member, on an organ of one of them, on family harmony, career, money etc. Only a Feng Shui consultant will be able to identify these changes in a precise manner. A successful project is therefore knowing exactly what will happen to the lives of the occupants according to the choices made in the project. Because when the work is finished, it will be too late.

Generally speaking, when building a house, it is important to look at all the surrounding forms, natural or built, because they will have a link to the house. When the view is rather beautiful, the design advice will activate what the inhabitant needs. With an excellent level of Feng Shui, unpleasant shapes will be used to the advantage of the occupants.

When transforming the existing, be aware of the new shape generated by an extension, the opening of new windows, changes in access. Avoid looking at the ugly, such as large electricity pylons or the ruin opposite. If water flows through your property, everyone agrees that it is wonderful... not always. If you have a health problem or have experienced painful events, hide the water from your view and observe what happens. Better yet, call a Feng Shui expert for all this.

FENG SHUI AND THE CITY PLANNING

Composed by Master Dominique Barriere (CP)

Many people in the West have heard of Feng Shui for home interior design: this is small feng shui, but few know that it is possible to apply it on a larger scale such as landscape or urban planning: this is great feng shui.

In small feng shui, the environment will influence the destiny of the inhabitants of a house: at the individual and family level.

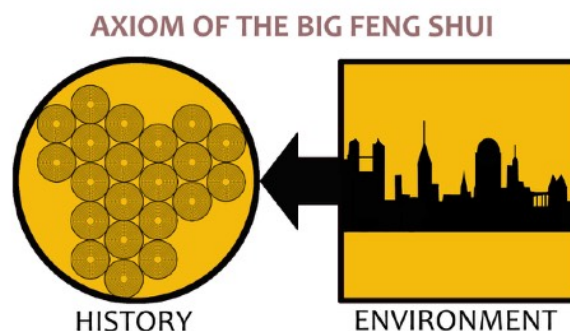

This interaction between the house, the garden and the family will be on an energetic level which will lead, if the place is balanced, to the family making the right decisions by adapting to the situations they are going through.

If not, decisions will not be made or will be made badly and the consequences will be felt with more or less impact on the clan's lineage.

HOW TO MAKE THE RIGHT DECISION ?

In great feng shui, the environment will influence the whole community living in the hamlet, village or city.

Also the natural and built forms that constitute the landscape around and within a town will have an impact on the history of the place and the trajectory of its entire community.

This is why it is particularly important that the public buildings in which authority will be exercised establish a good "energetic" relationship with this environment for the benefit of all.

HOW TO OPTIMISE YOUR FRONT DOOR

Composed by Master Céline Speranza (CP)

A good energy flow is visualised as a stream of water flowing through the house with ease. The yang energy from the outside must meet the yin energy from the inside in the right way to create balance and harmony.

The front door plays an important role in this meeting. In Feng Shui terms, the front door is the "chi mouth". Everything that can be observed and measured at the door reflects the nature and quality of the energy that is ready to enter.

First tips: remove clutter, repair broken items, avoid planting a tree in front of the front door, keep the space clean and airy, install light fixtures. Make sure that the size of the door is harmoniously proportional to the size of the architectural building: a wide and high door for a large building, a more reasonable door for a smaller building.

The Feng Shui consultant will calculate the placement and orientations of doors and gates during the construction and renovation project. They will know how to give the right measures, shapes and colours. They will be able to suggest the most advantageous access door when there are several. Not forgetting the date calculation they will make to start the changes, because success always comes when we are in the right place at the right time.

HEALTH: PAY ATTENTION TO THE 5 YELLOW STAR

Composed by Senior Master Jacqueline Miettinen (FS/IC/DS/CH/GD-YHH)

Every year, The Yearly Star changes creating a new Chee Ba (Purple White) Flying Stars diagram for the year. The Nine Stars change their position. All of them have a meaning. Amongst them, the Five Yellow should be considered very carefully, as carries the energy of illness.

Since the 22nd of December 2022, the Five Yellow is located in the North-West. The North-West is related with the leader of the house, also the head. These aspects could be primarily affected, especially if the door of the house is in the North-West, letting the Five Yellow in.

Because the year has just started, if this was your case, our Chue Style Feng Shui consultants have tools to help you.

I am going to tell you a short story to illustrate this:

The elderly lady client is living alone in her house with the main door in the North-West, facing to the first segment 戌 (also referred at as the Dog in hour branches).

The location of this door is already problematic because a very sharp roof overhang is pointing to the door about 1.5m away. Consecutively, the lady was suffering from terrible pains in the shoulder area and the whole body. She was brave and did not complain. The situation could have lasted like this.

In the very beginning of January this year, she was in her garden kneeling to arrange a flower bed when the neighbour's dog suddenly jumped at her grid-fence. She was so surprised and deeply frightened that she lost the ability to speak for a few days and became dizzy with balance problems. Her situation was concerning. Luckily a Feng Shui consultation in the beginning of February could assess her property, advising her (with other recommendations) to use another door that is in fact much more suitable for the whole house energy.

The lady client was very thankful and recovered hope and joy.

Please note that our consultants have tools even if you cannot change your door. As there is Yin and Yang, our Chue Style Feng Shui has solutions to control, or dilute the bad energy but also to improve the good energy.

GRAND MASTER CHAN'S YEARLY PREDICTION 2023

Composed by Master Kay Tom (CH/DS/YHH)

Every year Grand Master Chan studies the balance of energy for the year on a global basis and then illustrates to his students the strengths and the vulnerabilities of the year ahead through a Yearly Prediction. The accuracy of the advice given never ceases to amaze and this year is no exception:

February 3rd 2023

This is the day before the 1st Day of Spring in the Chinese Calendar and as such is a day that Chue practitioners do not use for anything important because of the weakness of the chi. At 17:00 hrs on this day a police car arrived at a neighbour's home to attend a reported incident of domestic violence: The property sits in a North – Northeast direction from my house:

Grand Master Chan's monthly forecast for February 2023 : the Northeast and North directions

NE 8:7:2: "2 Black sickness star is visiting and supports the 7 Star Por Kwan causing gossip: eat well to stay strong and don't talk too much in gatherings:"

SAN SATS Sitting in the Northeast 丑 for the year of 2023

Pau Mei: The Jaguar's tail: Step on this and he will bite back with vengeance.

Ng Gwai: The 5 Ghosts: The ghosts love to cause any form of disruption.

Gwa Suk: Female Sleeps alone: The accused partner left the home.

N: 1:5:9: “9 fire visiting supports the sickness 5. The sickness can be sex disease or kidney problems. All the stars are yang, and anything can happen very fast. Avoid going out at night, especially for romance in the North: The 2nd son should not mess about.

The incident erupted from nowhere: The accused is the 2nd son of his family

SAN SATS    Sitting in the North 子 for the year 2023:

Sam Yeung – 3 Punishments – avoid getting in trouble with the law

Gun Si – Rolling Tongue that attracts gossip

Ham Gee – Salacious Pool – attracts messy relationships

NW            The Northwest carries a vulnerability to sickness in 2023: This is particularly relevant to a property with a Northwest back: the property I am referring sits with its back in the Northwest. The advice is to avoid alcohol as this can irritate and make the sickness/matters worse.

The purpose of understanding the strengths and the vulnerabilities of the energy of the year, through the advice from Grand Master Chan’s Yearly Prediction, is to be prepared. To know where the “enemy” sits is to be on your guard and to avoid being caught out by the potential challenges. The best approach is to keep the area, and hence the energy, fresh to discourage the Bad Stars.

BA ZI FLOW

Composed by Master Heidi Pran (CH)

Big fate    Life house

戊	戊	丙	丙	甲	壬
戌	辰	申	申	辰	寅

This lady has a ba zi which is neither very strong, nor weak. The power of the heavenly stems is strong, while the branches are weak. She is born in the earth period of the 辰 dragon month, which is draining her 丙 fire, but the dragon belongs to spring and the date is very close to summer, so even if the wet earth of the 辰 dragon is supporting the metal 申 monkeys, all in all this is a strong chart which needs draining. The main problem is that it is all yang, but also the conflict between the metal and wood between the 申 monkeys and the 寅 tiger.

The conflict has had a huge impact in her life, as she has had several accidents to the bones, the most severe to her leg, which has caused many years of pain and debilitation.

Early on, she was given a jade rabbit amulet under the assumption that this could be a weak horoscope. The amulet formed an Eastern combination to wood supporting her fire, but it accentuated the conflict between metal and wood in the chart. It did her no good at all.

Then she was given two jade rat amulets under the assumption of a strong horoscope. These formed three-combinations to water, controlling her fire. This was a much better solution, as the rats introduced yin energy to the chart, and it removed the metal – wood conflict. But her life did not change in any respect.

Then we looked at the flow of energies instead. The flow in the heavenly stems is very good; the 壬 water feeds the 甲 wood, feeding the 丙 fire, feeding the 戊 earth. With a little manipulation, there could also be a nice flow in the branches. 壬 water feeds the wood 寅tiger. Introducing a fire 午horse will create a half combination to fire with the tiger, which would support the earth 辰 dragon supporting the metal 申monkeys. In her current big fate, the 戊 makes the three-combination to fire complete, thus also avoiding the crash to the dragon.

On a selected, auspicious date she started wearing a brown jade horse. And then slowly her life started to change for the better. First and foremost, she had a surgery done to her leg which was successful, and which removed most of the pain.

She had the choice between three jade horses; a green, a white and the brown, and she instinctively and immediately chose the brown. Now any jade horse would make the combination to her chart, but if we interpret the colour as the energy of the stem, the brown would be either a 戊午 or 丙午 horse. Both fit her chart in many ways.

Lap Yum ba zi is an ancient method according to form, sound, and heavenly energy, and is now only researched and taught within Chue style.

Chue Yik is a profound method of interpreting a person's horoscope, based on the I Ching and 64 hexagrams, and lap yum forms. The method is researched and developed by Grand Master Chan Kun Wah and is only available in Chue Style.

The lap yum form of the two horses 戊午 or 丙午 are sun and rain.

Both forms play a vital and auspicious role in the analysis of both the lap yum ba zi and the Chue Yik of the lady. She chose right!

巳 (Jee) to become ½ 金(Metal) therefore 酉金(Yaw metal) is not 100% supportive to 癸 水才 (Quai water choi). There is no 官木 (Kun wood) to protect 才(Choi) nor to control 比劫(Bey gin/Gip choi) and 才(Choi) is only in the stem, exposed to everybody. No 水 (Water) root at all means he cannot save money, also due to the absence of 官木 he does not know how to organize himself, even if he is clever, he is not able to organize himself. 癸水才 (Quai water choi) is weak and he sits on 巳火 (Jee fire) which is not his supporting element allowing everybody pinch his 才(Choi) easily. Having 比劫 (Bey gin/Gip choi) too strong means many people are after his money and he is also surrounded by bad friends. 才(Choi) also represents wife, his wife does not love him much as 比劫 (Bey gin/Gip choi) can pinch 才(his wife). 癸水才 (Quai water choi) pillar has 羊刀(Power to kill), 将星(Leading star) and 紅艷 (Sexual star) indicating that the wife may have an affair.

In this horoscope we need to use 水 (Water) first to balance the chart, as this is quite a hot chart, then nourish dry 土(Earth) to support 木 (wood); even producing 木 (Wood), 木(Wood) in 秋(Autumn) is 死 (dead), so 木 (Wood) is very weak. The worst thing in this horoscope is no 官木 (Kun wood) to protect 才(Choi). It is best to have 官(Kun) in the stem, visible to everyone, and 才 (Choi) in the branches, hidden from everyone so 比劫 (Bey gin/Gip choi) cannot pinch money, especially if you don't have 官(Kun) to protect 才(Choi).

- If 才(Choi) has no root when fate comes up to crash with 才(Choi), he will be in big trouble because 才(Choi) does not have root to hold on to it. Either he loses a lot of money, or he can have money related problem, or his wife may die.
- If Using element 才(Choi) has no root, better not to crash it. If crashes, it will totally vanish.
- If 才(Choi) is only in stem and nothing in the branches (= no root) means 才(Choi) is weak, and anybody can pinch 才(Choi).
- If 才(Choi) root comes up, then it is very good. 才(Choi) will become strong.

Bazi often reveals to us the life struggles of people. In Chue Style Feng Shui we can help them to have a better life, giving specific solutions, in this case, like:

- ✓ Advise him to wear 申(Shun) jade to combine with 巳(Jee) to make 水 (Water) root in the chart.
- ✓ Advise him to move to northern county, northern area of his town or city.
- ✓ Advise him to live closer to water and trees.

YEAR FATE OF THE UNITED STATES - YEAR 2023

Composed by Grand Master Chan Kun Wah and Susanna Senior Master Lau
(GD: FS/YHH/DS/IC/ICD)

Every winter solstice when the chi changes, Grand Master Chan will ask I-Ching on the year fate of the major countries. He has been doing this research over the past decades. I would like to share with you some of our work this year for the United States.

Year 年 癸卯 Month 月 壬子 Day 日 庚戌 Time 時 卯 To ask 問事 2023 YEAR FATE OF U.S.A.

The I-Ching results illustrate that the original kwa is 8-fate 9 with the bottom line 丑 moves. The resulting kwa is a 6-crashing kwa 1-fate 9.

The moving line 丑 with 'White Tiger' means there are many disasters on the ground, resulting in so much trouble in the US.

At the point of writing this article in mid-March 2023, we would like to share some evidence of our predictions with you.

(1) The bomb cyclone

(a) The 巽 moves and the ground turns into 乾 trigram. When the wind comes, the changing kwa becomes all metal. The 乾 hexagram is white in the sky and on the ground. The gigantic 'bomb cyclone' storm has hit over half of the country right before Christmas 2022. Many places including New York city were buried in a sea of snow.

(b) Buffalo (and 丑 being the ox) was the most severely damaged city.

(c) Everything is falling apart at the end as suggested by the 6-crashing kwa. The storm caused many disasters, including power knocked out, car accidents, many deaths, public transportation and airlines in chaos, etc.

(d) Flooding and possible diseases caused by the natural disaster will also emerge.

(2) Train derailment

The country (世 at 墓) is secretly doing something and it could be chemical-related poison/sickness (丑 has hidden metal).

The sickness (丑) moves and clashes to the citizens 亥 (on the 2nd line). The citizens are messing about ('Tortoise') with the sickness.

On 3rd February 2023 (being the last day of the 丑 month), over 50 cars of a freight train carrying toxic materials derailed in Ohio. The chemical was burned for almost two days. The news was released 20 days after the incidence. Citizens have been breathing polluted air and drinking toxic water without noticing during the cover up period. It was reported later that some 45,000 animals have died as a result of the chemical explosion.

(3) Other sickness

(a) There will be airborne infectious disease as the trigram represents wind.

(b) As reported at the year ended 2022, a new strain of Omicron, named XBB.1.5, has been spreading rapidly around the country especially in the Northeast region.

(4) Other key observations

- (a) The US government is very weak. It is just talking without any constructive action. 官 on 午 with 'Red Bird' and it clashes by the month leader.
- (b) The citizens are draining the government (the 2nd and 5th lines). The government (兄 on the 5th line), however, just wants money.
- (c) There is no money because wood being the money is empty.

Chue Style is one of the very few schools in the globe using winter solstice as the chi changes of a new year. Our Grand Master Chan has done so many research in various aspects, including BaZi, date selection, year and personal fate predictions, i-Ching prediction, Feng Shui, etc, to reaffirm this approach.

Using 'spring begins 立春' as the new chi cut-off date, the vast majority of non-Chue feng shui practitioners will not be able to analyse anything correctly. Their 'fundamental knowledge' is already wrong! This is why so many people believe feng shui and the related predictions are superstitious.

I CHING : A SIX COMBINATION KWA IS NOT ALWAYS GOOD

On behalf of Grand Master Chan, composed by Master Maša Zorn (CH)

The I Ching is used to guide us on many questions and has been in use for thousands of years. There are so many translations of the 'Book of changes' available, each with its own interpretation of the 64 hexagrams.

Practitioners of the I Ching today, rely solely on the book to interpretate the kwa, and have no clue that the true knowledge is written within each of the 6 lines.

This is another specialty of Chue Style - the I Ching and the 64 hexagrams. The interpretation is based on each individual line, as well as their kinships, Lok San animals, 12 palaces, combinations, the season and all the inside information each line carries. This in-depth interpretation of the I Ching was developed by Grand Master Chan Kun Wah, after many decades of research. It shows to be very accurate, when we know how to read the kwa correctly.

The 64 kwas used in the I Ching are the same as we use in our Chue Style compass, for Feng Shui, as well as for predictions. These are very precise instruments or tools that we learn to use throughout many years of intense studies of Chue Style Feng Shui.

In order to understand the I Ching properly, we must first master Ba Zi, Date selection and understand the 64 kwas in detail. Currently, there is nobody else teaching these valuable and precise skills, but Grand Master Chan Kun Wah. We are very fortunate to be able to benefit from his teachings!

In the example above Grand Master Chan reveals how to use the I Ching for property hunting. It is a real case example, which was asked recently before viewing a property for purchase.

Before Grand Master Chan goes on any consultation, he would ask the I Ching about the property or land. It is impressive how much information it is revealed even before viewing the location!

In this example the I Ching shows 8/7 water above lake 節, a 6 combination kwa. Normally, this is very good for the house. However, the 6 combination kwa doesn't always mean it's a good house! In this example Grand Master Chan teaches us why.

We need to investigate each individual line, the SY 世 and YING 应, the combinations and their outcome. We also need to consider the moving line and its changes; to which element, the kinships and their strengths.

First thing we need to know if this house is good or bad. It is much better if inside the kwa we find all the kinships. It means nothing is missing and all the family is there.

Secondly, kinships chee 子 and choi 才 need to be strong. Chai 才 is where the energy comes from and chee 子 is where the energy is stored in the property. They are both very important for a property. In this case, we have energy coming from 巳 position in the south and it is stored in the east (卯).

The position where the energy comes from is weak, because the monthly leader 寅 is crushing to Ying 应 申 and the latter combines to 巳 position, turning it into water; gip choi 却財. Because the 巳 position changes to water, the choi 才 is not strong.

The east position 卯, 子 kinship is also not good, as it moves backwards to 寅 in the changing kwa. Neither 卯, nor 寅 are empty however in 卯 year and 寅 month.

Third, we need to look at 2nd and 5th lines. They represent the property and the occupant respectively. In this case they are represented by 卯 wood and 戌 earth. In theory they combine, but there is no movement, so they actually crush each other. The wood crush to earth, meaning the property controls the occupant. This is not good.

Further, we look at the whole kwa. Which kinship is represented the most? It is the Kun 官, earth. It also happens that the third line is moving, which is 官, the earth. The third line represents the inside main door. When 丑 moves, it goes forward into 辰, 墓 tomb. It is the water tomb and the 8/7 kwa belongs to Kam, water family. It is also composed of water trigram above lake trigram - more water.

It turns out the house was full of humidity, the walls were damp and it had a very bad smell, which Grand Master Chan noticed right away when he entered that door.

The back wall of the ground floor also had no windows at the back, as it was in the same level as back garden - hence the correlation with the tomb.

The house was full of water, as the I Ching suggested in the trigrams, also we can see the water in the tombs - 丑 has 癸 water inside, and 辰 is the water tomb.

The house was North site, facing South. Because the garden was in the North, it does not receive enough warmth and sun, so the energy was very damp. In a cold country we need more exposure to the south.

The energy of this house is declining, this is shown by the I Ching as well. The Sy 世 is the occupant and the Ying 应 is the future. When they combine: 巳申 水 water results. Water is the gip choi 却財 for this kwa. When 巳 choi才, the energy, changes to gip choi, it is no good at all. All energy is gone, declining!

Moreover, the season is very important in the I Ching. Here, the month is 甲寅 and it crushes to 申, 父 kinship. The 寅 is chee 子 kinship, the future generation and now is crushing with foo 父 which represents the health. It means this house is not good for health and does not benefit the future generation! Another indication of the house not being good for health is that there is 官 - sickness with Ba Fu (white tiger).

We can see how the 6 combination kwa doesn't benefit the occupant in this case. There is no more choi 才 left, as the combinations result in gip choi 却財 (巳申水), or 官 (子丑土). No energy gets into the property and even worse is that the changing kwa is 3 fate - called 'the spirit messing about'.

At first the house looks nice, from the outside. The I Ching also shows that it is high at the back, we can see the top line 子 has a far away view (Chee djaa - red bird). This was the case, as there was a very good and open view from the back garden. The inside condition was not good at all, as the house was very neglected. The owners never invested in any renovation or maintenance. This can be seen again in the I Ching, as the 官 line is moving into 墓 tomb, suggesting the organisation is not good in the house. Also because the earth (官 kinship) is empty in spring. At first, the house was good, but because of poor maintenance it became bad and lost its vitality. When we maintain our properties, they last much longer and can provide us with good energy.

We can now understand why this 6 combination kwa doesn't show a suitable house at all! It is all written in the lines. This useful knowledge can save us a fortune, as seen in this example when hunting for property.

Spring is the time when fresh energy moves the year forward. Like thunder and wind awaken nature, rain nourishes vegetation and the sun enables the growth of all. We can adopt these lessons in our living environments and lifestyle.

Refresh your energy in the morning by exercising, stretching and Qi gong. Wear loose clothes in spring and get a new haircut. Get plenty of fresh air into your lungs and into your home. Make your home more alive by introducing a fresh coat of paint on your front door, adding live plants in your living space, or for example reduce the number of things in your home to create more space.
